

"Pictures" - Lyrics

1. Juli 2011 um 04:42

Verse 1:

There's no way to show how I feel
You wouldn't understand the causes
Why this shit never ends
The love we had has disappeared
How could I forget who you are
And all the things you said

Pre-Chorus:

The flames are slowly burning out
I start to scream, but there's no one else around
Your picture's hanging on my wall
I went so high, but I barely touch the ground

Chorus:

Can I take this fate
Can I live restrained
I took this path until I had found a way
Take it all away
There's nothing left to say
Against my will I won't see you again

Verse 2:

My memories seem to be erased
How could it be so numb in my place
The visions we have claimed
Sometimes I don't know what is real
I'm losing myself in my mind
This shit just fucks me up

Outro:

The times we had
Still in my head
I'm feeling so damned
