

"Self Against Insanity" – Lyrics

27. Juli 2011 um 01:49

Verse 1:

I look into the mirror
And all I see is such a plague
Fallen idols catch my throat
They remind me that my name's just fake

Verse 2:

I take a breath
For every fuckin' demon
It feels like fire
Your show begins

Pre-Chorus:

Nail me
My failures must be excused
Leave me
I can't defend myself
I can't forgive myself

Chorus:

You caused it
you cannot deny
You have changed me for a while
You've seen it
Just before I tried
Why you can't just fade away?

Verse 3:

I cut along my eyes
To bring back my forlorn design
Going down in golden flames
I'm inside but watching from afield

Bridge:

I take a breath
For every fuckin' demon
As my heart beats outside of you
My senses freezing

My fear is rising
I will never make it through
